

BOYS GO TO JUPITER

A whirlwind of influences and genres, BGTJ's indie pop-rock sound is singular in its strong storytelling and powerful live performances. As a six-piece or as a trio, the Brooklyn band delivers with heart, humor, and hooks that have audiences dancing, singing, crying, and back again.

2025 saw SOLD OUT shows in Boston, Chicago, DC, and Philadelphia on their headline tour, a successful run supporting Jukebox the Ghost, multiple sold out dates in NYC, and plays in iconic venues like Music Hall of Williamsburg, Webster Hall, and The Hall at Elsewhere.

With a passionate and rapidly growing fanbase, an upcoming headline tour, and a new EP, "Now You're A Circle", released on High Rotation Records, 2026 is set to be BGTJ's biggest year yet.
